WORKSHOP ON 'CLASSICAL AND FOLK SINGING'

To enhance artistic and aesthetic sensibility of student-teachers and to enable them to respond to the beauty in music through genuine exploration, experience and free expression, Army Institute of Education organized a workshop on classical and folk singing on September 12 2018. The workshop was conducted by Ms. Nisha Singh, Assistant Professor, AIE.

During the workshop the student-teachers listened to live performance by the resource person on various ragas of Hindustani classical music. They practiced 'aalap' and learnt the nuances of basics of learning vocal music. They were familiarized with Indian music instruments. Towards the end of the workshop the student-teachers identified some folk songs of various states in India.
