NATIONAL SEMINAR

on

'Enhancing Equity, Excellence, Quality and Innovation in Teacher Education'

(Thursday, 21 January 2019)

Venue: Seminar Hall, AIE Campus

Relevance of the Theme

Teacher quality and the strength of educator's leadership are recognized as the greatest determinants of educational success. Teacher quality, teacher learning, and teacher improvement, therefore, are becoming the foci of researchers, policy makers, program designers, implementers and evaluators. To meet with the increasing demands of 21st century learners, teachers and teacher educators have to be abreast with emerging ideas and innovations. Excellence and innovation in teaching and learning are fundamental to the delivery of a relevant and contemporary education. Educational quality in developing countries has become a topic of intense interest, primarily because of countries efforts to maintain quality or reverse the decline of quality in the context of quantitative expansion of educational provision. In view of the above, we need to enhance equity, excellence, quality and innovation in Teacher Education.

The National Seminar is an initiative to provide a platform to educationists, educational administrators, teacher educators, teachers, research scholars and students of post-graduation and under-graduate level of teacher education to deliberate upon the issues and concerns for equity, excellence, quality and innovation in teacher education.

Objectives

The National Seminar is an educational endeavour to:

- identify and address the diverse and emerging needs of teacher education in global scenario
- address the challenges in teacher education through pragmatic approach.
- address the challenges experienced in today's classroom.
- create a platform for sharing knowledge and dialogue on issues related to equity, excellence, quality and innovation in Teacher Education.
- compare the evolution of teacher education systems across the globe from past to present in terms of equity, excellence, quality and innovation aspects.
- empower the educators with variegated ideas related to enhancing equity, excellence, quality and innovation in teacher education.
