GUEST LECTURE ON 'TEACHER AS A COUNSELLOR'

Army Institute of Education observed 22nd January 2019 as the 7th day of the Personality Development Programme which focused on 'Teacher as a Counsellor'. The session was addressed by Ms. Pooja Bagrodia, Assistant Professor, Dept. of Psychology, University of Delhi, Delhi.

During her lecture, Ms. Pooja Bagrodia made student teachers aware about the important and indispensable aspects of teaching profession. She explained about the need to accept the changes in this profession according to the rapidly changing needs of the society. Apart from this, she briefed about various types of learning disabilities and ways to deal with those. Moreover, she discussed in details about inclusion and integration in education. In the end, there was a doubt clearing session in which student teachers asked some of their queries.

All in all, it was an interesting and enriching session.
