

Brief Profile

Ms. Kriti Guleria is working as Assistant Professor in Army Institute of Education, Greater Noida, affiliated to GGSIP University, New Delhi since 12 Feb 2016. She started her career as PRT and TGT (SSc) in various Army Public Schools (Jammu, Chandimandir, Gaya) and has experience of 07 years in Teacher Education. She is Masters in Commerce from Aligarh Muslim University. After completing M.Ed.in 2005 she qualified UGC NET in Education. She is also the holder of Diploma in French Language from AMU, Aligarh and has completed Post Graduate Diploma in School Leadership and Management (PGDSLML) from IGNOU with overall A Grade in 2020. She is also pursuing Ph.D. in Education from Amity University, Noida.

She has attended various National and International Seminars/ Workshops/ Conferences. She has presented number of papers in National Seminar and published few articles in books. She is the Editor of Institute's biannual Newsletter 'Sankalan' since 2016. She has contributed as the Convener of the National Seminar held in 2019 and as Co-convener of International Conference and National Seminar held in the Institute in 2017. She has completed Minor Research Study titled 'Comparative Study of Confidence Level and Emotional Stability between wards of Civil and Army Personnel in Delhi and NCR' in 2017.

She has held various administrative and academic responsibilities including Coordinator of B.Ed. Batch 2017-19, Editor of Institute's bi-annual Newsletter 'Sankalan' since 2016, Editor of the sixth issue of the Institute Journal 'Eduspectra', Institute Magazine 'Vivaksha 2020-21', Examination Incharge, School Internship Programme Incharge, Preliminary School Engagement Incharge, Sports Incharge to name a few.