'Orientation Programme on Desh Ke Mentor'

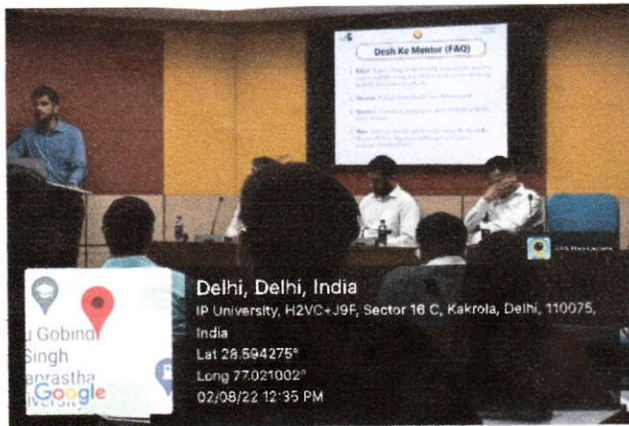

NSS Members from AIE attended the Orientation Program on Desh Ke Mentor Project held on 02.08.2022 at 11:00 am in the Seminar Hall, B-Wing, Admin-Block, GGSIPU University Main Campus, New Delhi. There were 5 Resource persons and 60 participants who attended the meeting. DCPCR is implementing and managing Desh Ke Mentor Project which is initiated to provide individualized career mentorship to students in classes 10th to 12th of Delhi Government schools. Dr. Anurag gave a lecture on importance of Mentor in building successful career. Program Officers Mr. Arpit and Ms. Ekta gave a detailed presentation regarding the implementation of Desh Ke Mentor Project. They explained the whole process about India's largest mentoring program to provide career and life related guidance to students studying in Delhi Government schools. Mentor will be College Individual/ Any Professional and Mentee will be a student studying in class 10th-12th of Delhi Government schools. This process will take place through weekly phone calls using the Desh Ke Mentor Mobile Application through a helpline number (18003097301) Mentor will be rewarded by Delhi Government Certificate and letter of appreciation in the end if he/she performed well. Expectations from this program is to add Desh Ke Mentor as a mandatory course. Ms. Ekta also conducted Question Answer session to solve any query regarding the project. In the end Dr. Varun Joshi (Programme Coordinator, NSS Cell) also discussed following NSS activities to be conducted which are as follows:
