“WORKSHOP ON THEATRE IN EDUCATION”

One-day workshop on ‘Theatre in Education’ was held on 25 October 2018 at Army Institute of Education, Greater Noida from 09:00 am to 05:00 pm. Resource person was Dr. Rajesh Gill, Assistant Professor, Maharaja Surajmal Institute, Delhi. Dr. Gill did doctorate in Visual Art from Rajasthan University, Jaipur and working towards making theatre popular in the field of education. The aim of the workshop was to familiarise student teachers about the role of theatre in education. With the help of many traditional games and activities, Dr. Gill demonstrated that how can teaching will be a fun and students could learn without burden and boredom.

According to her Theatre is an excellent way of teaching invaluable social and life skills such as interpersonal communication, team-building, creative problem solving, leadership, critical thinking, group decision-making and self-expression but the proportion of education and theatre needs to be carefully planned. The workshop was indeed useful for student-teachers to use alternative ways of teaching specially when students get bored with regular classroom teaching.
