NATIONAL SCIENCE DAY( 28 FEBRUARY 2019)

CURIO - CITY 2019

A science exhibition CURIO-CITY 2019, was organized in the AIE campus on 28 Feb 2019. This day is observed as NATIONAL SCIENCE DAY to honor the contributions made by Indian Nobel Physicist Sir CV Raman. The theme for this year was, “Science for People, People for Science”.

The chief guest for the occasion was Prof. HS Gaur, Dean, School of Basic Science and Research, Sharda University . An agricultural scientist, he has been recognized for his research on ‘Hydrobiosis’ and ‘Solarisation’.

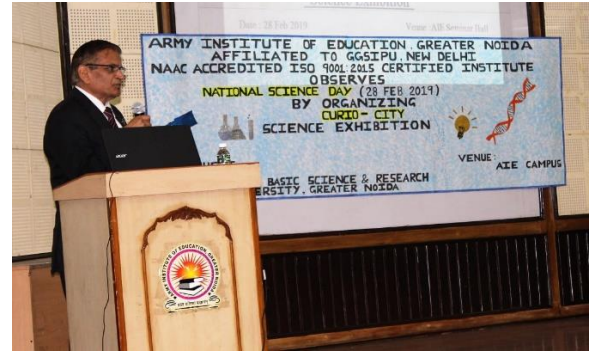

Six clubs namely Innovative Club, Life Skills Club, Research and Development Club ,Eco Club, Art and Craft and Literary Club put up various models for display. The models were mostly made from best out of waste. The various clubs brought up innovative models like Hydraulic Crane, An Alternative Fuel: Biogas to Biomethanol, Rain Water Harvesting, Experiments depicting Surface Tension and Effects of Pressure.

The chief guest took a round and interacted with the students of different clubs . He was very appreciative of the efforts of all the students and was happy that today’s generation has indigenous ideas and the will to think creatively and be imaginative.

He then addressed the students and applauded the students for their efforts and also handed over certificates for participation and suggested that the flame of inquisitiveness must keep on burning.

Felicitation of Prof. HS.Gaur.
