REPORT: ANNUAL SPORTS MEET 2022-23

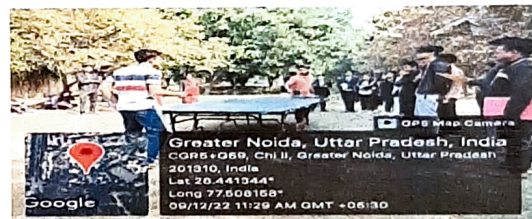

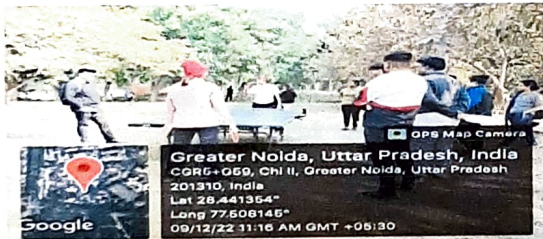

DATE: 10-11 DECEMBER, 2022

The primary goals of participating in sports are to develop self-confidence, perseverance, enthusiasm, and sportsmanship, as well as to have fun, be physically active, learn the fundamentals of the sport, strengthen coordination and motor skills, and understand the fundamentals of the activity. Keeping the same in mind, Army Institute of Education organized Annual Sports Meet 2022-23 from 10-11 December, 2020.

Knockout matches (09 December 2022)

The singles and mixed doubles knockout competitions in badminton kicked off the day, and they were followed by events in Chess, Carrom, and Table Tennis (singles and mixed double). After a little break, the elimination rounds for Basketball, Kho-Kho and Kabaddi were played out. Each of the four houses, Pragya, Pratihtha, Pragyanam, and Pratigya, competed with their usual level of zeal and showed both team spirit and sportsmanship.

Day 1 (10 December 2022)

Dr. Abhilasha Gautam, Principal AIE, offered her support and blessings before the ceremony got underway. She urged the student-teachers to take part in the competition with the competitive zeal and good sportsmanship that are necessary for any athletic contest. Additionally, she inspired them to have valuable life experiences via the medium of athletics. She spoke about having a good ethos and ethics, and she underlined the need of cultivating comradery in one's life. Additionally, Dr Gautam conveyed her best wishes to each and every individual who was participating in the event. She sent her warmest regards to the day's Chief Guest, Maj Gen Amin Naik, Sena Medal & Arjun Awardee (Veteran). Students were inspired by the Chief Guest who urged them to develop themselves as strong leaders via his words of wisdom, who spoke about ethos, virtues and emphasized on inculcating comradship in life. The General Officer gave best of his wishes to all the participants for the events.

Air Cmde (Dr.) JK Sahu, Director AIMT, also encouraged students with his presence at the occasion.

Customary torch lighting was done by the dignitaries along with sports student representatives. After that Principal AIE declared the Sports Meet open.

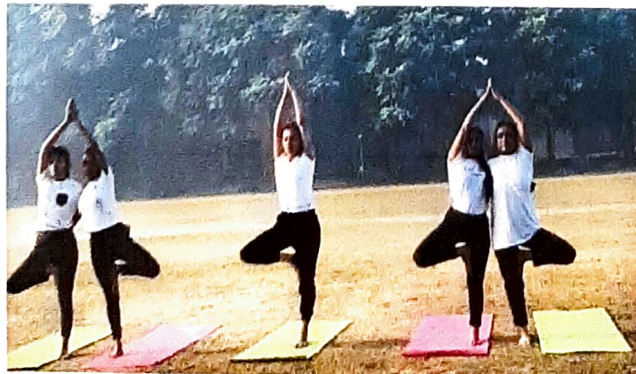

The event started with the March Past by all the four Houses, i.e., Pragma, Pratihtha, Pragyanam and Pratihya, where the students synchronized with their house members on the beats of drums. Plethora of events took place throughout the day, beginning with the 100 m Race (Women), 200 m Race (Women), 400 m Race (Women), Kho-Kho finals, Kabaddi finals, Long Jump (Men & Women), Shot Put (Men & Women), Discus Throw (Men & Women), Badminton finals (Men & Women), 100 m Race (men), 200 m Race (men), 400 m Race (men) and Table tennis finals (singles and mixed double). The student-teachers demonstrated excellent sportsmanship by competing in each and every event with the utmost enthusiasm and vigour, ultimately achieving victory in every competition they participated.
