77TH Independence Day 2023 Celebration

The term liberation is not just a word but a sense of individualism that foster the ethos of solidarity in disparity. India gained and celebrates its Independence Day on August 15th 1947. It has been valiant, chivalrous and heart-warming 77 years for India to be an Independent Republic. On August 15th 2023, AIE and AIMT celebrated the 77th Independence Day conjointly in the institute ground.

The celebration of Independence Day was inaugurated with the flag hoisting by Dr. Abhilasha Gautam, Principal of Army Institute of Education and Col. Abhay Rajvanshi (Retd).

The Flag hoisting was followed by the National Anthem that portrayed the quintessence of integrity and complexion of flag-waving and nationalism. The programme subsequently forwarded by the galvanising and moving oration of Principal of AIE, with a thought to propelled and impelled the perception of youthful marbles' of India. The notion was addressed with the essentiality to evoke the nerve and spiritedness of the Indian and to outstretch India as a harmonic and compatible nation at the global platform. The Independence Day Celebration was sealed by sharing out of confections among the percipients.
