Report Basant Panchami: 23 Jan 2026

NSS Cell and Cultural Committee of Army Institute of Education celebrated Basant Panchami in front of idol of Goddess Saraswati with great enthusiasm on January 23, 2026. A Havan (fire ritual) was performed on this occasion for the spiritual and physical well-being of all. The college principal, Dr. Abhilasha Gautam, explained the scientific significance of the Havan, stating that 'it purifies our environment and atmosphere, thereby improving our mental and physical health.'so we should add this type of activity in our life style compulsorily.

Objectives of Celebration of Basant Panchami –

- To promote academic excellence by inspiring students to value education, creativity and intellectual growth.
- To preserve and promote Indian culture and traditions among students in an educational environment.
- To develop moral and spiritual values such as discipline, humility, and respect for knowledge.

At the end of the programme, all the participants partook of the Prasad, extended cordial wishes for each other's welfare and then dispersed.

Learning Outcomes of Basant Panchami Celebration-

- Students developed an understanding of the cultural and spiritual significance of Basant Panchami and the worship of Goddess Saraswati.
- Students learned to respect and preserve Indian traditions, festivals, and cultural heritage.
- The programme promoted moral and ethical values essential for holistic personality development and cultural values with education in their academic life.
