REPORT ON GUEST LECTURE BY DR. SHUBHA SHARMA: 27 AUG 2024

On the 27th of August 2024, the Army Institute of Education, Greater NOIDA, had the privilege of hosting an insightful guest lecture by Dr. Shubha Sharma, a renowned Radio Programmer and Motivational Speaker. The lecture, which focused on the importance and impact of co-curricular activities in education, was well-attended by students of BEd and BEdSplEd Batch 2024-26, faculty members, and administrative staff.

The primary objective of the lecture was to highlight the significance of co-curricular activities in the holistic development of students. Dr. Shubha Sharma emphasized how these activities contribute to the overall personality development of students, enhancing their academic performance, social skills, and emotional well-being.

The lecture was followed by an interactive session where students had the opportunity to ask questions and share their thoughts. Dr. Sharma patiently answered all queries, providing valuable insights and encouraging students to actively participate in co-curricular activities. She also shared tips on how to balance academics and extracurricular involvement effectively.

The guest lecture by Dr. Shubha Sharma was a highly enriching experience for all the attendees. It successfully conveyed the importance of co-curricular activities in shaping well-rounded individuals and preparing them for future success. The students left the session inspired and motivated to take an active part in such activities alongside their academic pursuits. Dr. Abhilasha Gautam, Principal, AIE expressed its gratitude to Dr. Shubha Sharma for her valuable time and the profound knowledge she shared. The guest lecture was organized by Dr. Jyoti Tiwari, Asst. Prof, AIE.
